UM 2020
Strategic Planning Process Overview

Last Updated: November 15, 2010

Prepared by: Office of Strategic Planning
PLANNING INTRODUCTION:
UM 2020
Introduction

- The 1994 vision Great American Public University established UM’s strategic direction and fueled strategic planning efforts over the past 15 years.

- Our new strategic plan, UM 2020, will serve as a guide, more comparable to a roadmap with many intersections and routes rather than a linear pathway.

- The planning process for UM 2020 will kick-off in November 2010 with a targeted completion date of July 2011.
Introduction (cont’d)

- The strategic planning process will be a campus-wide, collaborative effort that will require a “one-university” mentality as we plan for the future.

- UM 2020 will NOT be so detailed as to determine or unduly impinge on specific operational decisions of the provost, deans, and departments.

- In the future, the success of UM 2020 will rely upon an important parallel planning and improvement process that aligns and integrates a combination of unit-based and university-wide initiatives.
UM 2020 – Planning Process Oversight

- The Chancellor has requested that the Office of the Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs lead and coordinate the implementation and assessment of UM 2020.

- The Provost will work with the Strategic Planning Council, Dean’s Council, and other entities to ensure a collaborative, campus-based strategic planning process.

- The Strategic Planning Council, the Office of Strategic Planning, and the Office of Institutional Research & Assessment will provide resource support and facilitate the strategic planning process.
UM 2020 - Introduction

UM 2020 – Key Questions to be Answered

➢ Who are we as institution? (Mission/Core Values)
➢ Where do we want go as an institution? (Vision 2020)
➢ What will it take to get there? (Strategic Framework)
➢ How will we tell if we have arrived at our goals? (Measurement/Assessment)
Additional Questions to Consider:

- How will a Great American Public University be defined in 2020?
- If demand for our programs exceeds capacity in the future, how shall we shape the University?
- What will be the role for access, selective admissions, progress in academic excellence, progress in retention rates, and graduation rates? Can we find pathways to continue progress in all these areas?
- What is the future of the 4-year traditional university in the 21st century?
- In the ultra-competitive, global economy of the 21st century, how should the University of Mississippi continue to enhance academic quality, advance its research enterprise, and better serve the social and public needs of state, nation, and global community?
STRATEGIC PLANNING FRAMEWORK DEFINED: UM 2020
UM 2020 - Strategic Planning Framework Defined:

- Statement of Mission
  UM’s fundamental reasons for existence; not to be confused with specific goals, vision, or operating strategies.

- Vision Statement
  An attainable destination point that is 5-10 years away that provides direction for the University and provides a framework for future choices.

- Core Values
  The ethical, moral, and social basis of how UM will move toward its vision. The values of the University should be widely accepted and govern conduct.
UM 2020 - Strategic Planning Framework Defined (cont’d):

➢ Priorities for Excellence  (What we hope to accomplish)
The university-wide goals or core institutional commitments that define UM’s desired outcomes for a 10-year period that are required to achieve the vision. (formerly called UM’s vision 8 goals)

➢ Strategic Themes & Initiatives  (This is what we are going to do)
Strategic initiatives are specific and action-oriented and, if fulfilled, will support UM in achieving its vision. Strategic themes are developed to group similar initiatives that align with one or more of the UM’s Priorities for Excellence.
